

FAIR RESPECT

RULES TO FOLLOW AT OUR FAMILY FRIENDLY FAIR

The Maury County Fair is a family-oriented event. All vendor displays, items for sale, services or information provided by a vendor will be suitable for all audiences. Vendors will immediately remove any unsuitable materials or refrain from unsuitable activities when notified to do so by the chairman of the festival. Failure to do so will result in the immediate closing of the vendor's booth and the vendor's removal from the festival without refund.

The above is our standard notice about your content at our fair. Below are additional items that must be adhered to in order your you to participate in our fair.

- No profanity during the fair operation.
- No yelling, bickering or fighting on the fair grounds. Ever! We don't need or want it here.
- Vendors are to be respectful to one another.
- This is a fairground not a campground. Dress accordingly for public consumption.
- Any issues you have with vendors or patrons are to be brought to the attention of the Fair Staff. We will review and take any necessary actions as deemed appropriate by the Fair Board members.

We want everyone to be successful and have an enjoyable experience at our fair. Always keep in mind how you as vendor present yourself reflects not only on you, but also on the Maury County Fair. We want everyone to remember how great our fair is and how great the vendors we have are.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read and understand the above information. You also acknowledge that you agree to abide by the above information/rules.
